 - c. Nepali Dumpling House: I've never been to this store.

AFFIDAVIT OF SNAP HOUSEHOLD

I, AYINGENEYE HYACINTHE, am/was a Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program participant who shopped at Central Market in Winooski, Vermont between July and December 2015. Under penalty of perjury, I make the following statements about my time shopping at Central Market.

1086 Pine Island Rd
Colchester, VT 05664
802-829-7371

1. My current address and telephone number are:
2. I would buy two to five boxes of bananas every two or three weeks. I would cook them over time and when I ran out, I would come back. I would also buy bread, tomatoes, rice, and fresh vegetables and fruits as well.
3. I would shop at Walmart and Price Chopper sometimes for other items. However, Central Market was closer to my house so I would go shop there when it was convenient. The food at the stores are different, so I would buy things from Central Market that Walmart didn't have.

4. I have a big family so every three days I would have to go shopping. I would spend sometimes hundreds of dollars a week in groceries. I did not receive enough EBT benefits to satisfy all of my needs every month, so I would have to buy. with cash. HA
5. My family has seven people in it and I shopped for groceries for my entire household.
- ~~6. I would shop at Central Market instead of larger stores because: HA~~
7. I used to shop at Central Market more often than Kamana because Central Market had a lot more foods and they knew what I needed. Central Market had really good customer service and they would help to carry the items out to car.
8. I did/did not shop at
 - a. Himalayan Food Market: I never shopped at this store.
 - b. Thai Phat Market: I never shopped at this store.
 - c. Nepali Dumpling House: I never shopped at this store.

6. I usually shop by myself at the store. I use the carts when I am in the store, but I use my car to transport the food back to my house.
7. I have never heard of Kamana grocery. Central Market has many of the food items that I buy that are imported so I don't shop at the other local stores.
8. I live in St. Albans – it is far from the store.
9. I did/did not shop at
 - a. Himalayan Food Market: I have never shopped at this store.
 - b. Thai Phat Market: I have never shopped at this store.
 - c. Nepali Dumpling House: I have never shopped at this store.
10. I would shop at the store about 2-3 times a week. Anytime I needed mangos or other food items that they carried, I would come by all the time. I used to spend about $75 to $80 per week regularly. But sometimes I would spend more than $100.00 because of the rice and some of the items.
11. I also liked to shop at Central Market because they were fast and convenient. It was easy for me to pick out items and purchase them because I am usually in a hurry.

and there is so much more Nepali food at Central market than there was at the other stores

6. I bought meat, fish and produce. There was everything for cooking the items like vegetables, lentils salt.
7. The prices were good at Central Market so I went there. They were also the first Nepali grocery store in the town, so I started going there because they were the first ones.
8. I compared the prices between that store and the other Nepali stores, the prices at Central Market were much lower than at the other stores.
9. I would shop at Kamana only if it was convenient in my route home or in my errands. Central Market was already well known and it had good customer service, so I didn't go to Kamana as often. Central Market would provide their truck to help us move our things from one house to another house, so their customer service and their assistance in the community was well known.
10. Sometimes Central Market would provide me with free vegetables or other items which I would normally have to purchase.
11. I did/did not shop at
 - a. Himalayan Food Market: It was there in 2015, but it was very far away from us. If we happened to be near the store, we might stop by, but it was too far for it to be our regular store.
 - b. Thai Phat Market: Sometimes once a month or two I would shop at that store, but it is far away too and the prices were more expensive at this store than they were at Central Market.
 - c. Nepali Dumpling House: I was not aware that this store existed.

12. I purchased the following items from Central Market in 2015:

- a. Fruits and vegetables, Fish, Meat, Rice, Flour, Cooking oils, salt and peppers.
- b. I shopped for most of my food needs at Central Market. It's not that I didn't go to other stores sometimes, but that's where I went most of the time.

13. I have my own car and have had one since 2015.

14. I had twelve (12) people living with me in 2015 and I would buy groceries for everyone in the household.

15. I would make large purchases from about $100.00 to $300. Sometimes, if we had to buy everything at once, it would be more than $300.00 total. Between the 2nd to the 4th of the month I would make a large grocery trip, and that's when I would spend most of my money.

16. With large purchases or big items like bags of rice, I would tell the clerk what I wanted and they would go in the back and bring it out to my car. They did this for many of the larger items.

17. Central Market helped us a lot by giving us free things. They would have deals where I could buy some items and get other items free.

PURSUANT TO UNITED STATES CODE 28 USC §1746, I DECLARE AND CERTIFY UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING AFFIDAVIT IS TRUE AND CORRECT.

12. Central Market always had the items that I liked that no one else had. So I kept shopping at the store because it had everything that I needed.
